Skin Perfect

New beauty skincare launches are two-a-penny to us beauty editors, so you'll excuse us for being overly cynical when yet another new range comes our way. So when Dayenne, the new skin care range from Germany landed on our desks, we were more than pleasantly surprised that this more than lives up to the hype, and then some. The Face Mask, with its pure young cells of brewers yeast, cleanses and regenerates dull, tired complexions into healthy, glowing, radiant examples of perfection. Get it while you can from www.dayenne.co.uk, before the beauty editors grab theirs.
